"Ron is brilliant. And lovely. 'Nuff said" Producer Mat Chaplin Zepotron

"I first worked with Ron on the 2001 TV Series on IS HARRY ON THE BOAT? For BSkyB and most recently we worked together on DOUBLE LESSON a half an hour monologue starring Phil Davis for C4's First Cut Strand. Each time I have found Ron to be thoroughly professional, great with cast and crew and joy to have on set. He is quick, efficient and his work is always to the highest quality" Head of Production Faye Ward Ruby Films

"As one of Ron Bailey's many legion of admirers I have benefited from his expertise, his willingness to find solutions to complex problems when many throw in the towel, his appreciation of team work, his indefatigable spirit in the face of manifold technical adversity and his humour. It has been a pleasure to have known and worked with him over the last twenty years. And long may our collaboration continue." Director John Akomfrah

"I have known Ron for several years and have worked with him on both feature films and commercials. Ron is the rare breed of Sound Mixer who is both an excellent Mixer and a likeable and popular among both cast and crew. He is a catalyst for good moral which in the ever-challenging world of film production is a major bonus. I worked with Ron last year on a feature shot in Wales and now we are in post production, the Sound and Dialogue Editors are delighted with the Production Sound. Ron handled the challenges of recording sound in old creaky rooms and houses and gave us clean usable sound every time. He is technically very knowledgeable and owns all the equipment one needs for a feature film." Executive Producer Jonathan Weissler
