ADDITIONAL INFORMATION:

"I have known Tanya Lodge since 2004 when she worked as our make-up designer on Neil Marshall's hit film THE DESCENT (which I produced). It was an immensely challenging job done on a shoestring budget and her work on the film was fabulous. Her tact, charm and common sense also made her a delightful person to have on set for actors and crew alike. I would not hesitate to work with her again or recommend her wholeheartedly to others."

Producer Christian Colson
